13 Days Jordan, Saudi Arabia & Oman

Experience the wonders of the Middle East on a 13-day adventure through Jordan, Saudi Arabia, and Oman. This immersive tour will take you through some of the most awe-inspiring and culturally significant destinations in the region.

Starting in Jordan, you'll explore the ancient city of Amman, home to the famous Roman Theatre and the bustling Souk Jara market. You'll then journey to the Rose City of Petra, where you can marvel at the intricate rock-carved temples and tombs. You'll also have the opportunity to explore the stunning desert landscapes of Wadi Rum, where you can experience traditional Bedouin culture and witness unforgettable sunsets.

Next, you'll cross the border into Saudi Arabia, where you'll visit the Tamaya Oasis, a stunning palm-tree lined oasis located in the heart of the desert. You'll also explore the ancient city of Khaybar, the historic town of Al Ula, and the holy city of Madinah. Your journey through Saudi Arabia will conclude in the vibrant city of Riyadh, where you can explore the bustling markets, visit historic sites, and experience the local culture.

Finally, you'll fly to Oman, where you'll explore the majestic Nakhal Fort, wander through the scenic Wadi Bani Awf, and take a stroll through the charming Birkat Al Mawz Village. You'll also have the opportunity to visit Jabal Shams, Oman's highest mountain, and take a leisurely hike on the Balcony Walk. Your tour will conclude with a visit to Jabreen Castle and the Three Village Walk, offering a unique glimpse into Oman's rich cultural heritage.

With all transportation, accommodations, and expert guides included, this all-inclusive tour promises an unforgettable adventure through some of the most breathtaking and historically significant destinations in the Middle East.
